A Lovely Grub

What do you fancy for tea then?

Some bullion or gold?

Bite into some coins or sovereigns

Just waiting to be sold?

Ah, don't fret about the foodbanks,

Let volunteers fill those.

They love the sense of importance

But why, God only knows.

Let's crack on with the caviar,

Venison, veal and steak.

Pop the champers light a cigar,

Invest and celebrate!

Take the grub and bullion too,

These ads for gold are great.

Send the poor some tins of food then,

We'll spend and speculate!
